News Brief
October 2, 2006

Tully Markets, LLC regrets having to announce the lost of one of our retailers that attended our recent show.

Marshall "Eddie" White from Hilltop Trading, Statesville, NC was killed in a head on collision on his way home Monday morning, September 25th. His wife, Phyllis, is still in ICU at the N.E. Georgia Regional Hospital in Gainesville, GA. She suffered several broken bones, a collapsed lung, and other significant injuries.

Eddie's brother was admitted to Athens Regional Hospital, Athens, GA, and his longtime girlfriend was at N. E. Georgia Regional with Phyllis. She has already been released.

Our thoughts and prayers go out to Terry, Phyllis' daughter and her brother Rick.

The driver that crossed the median and caused the wreck was also killed, as were two others in an auto from Pennsylvania.
